

Altadena

Town Council

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

APPLICATIONS NOW OPEN FOR THE ALTADENA TOWN COUNCIL ELECTION

Eight Seats Are Up for Election

Altadena, CA, September 15, 2026 – It's election time in Altadena! Those wishing to run for a seat on the Altadena Town Council have until 5:00 p.m. on Friday, October 16, 2026, to complete and file their application. The completed application and the $40 nonrefundable application fee must both be received by that deadline. All rules and regulations can be found on the Altadena Town Council website, www.altadenatowncouncil.org.

If you live in Altadena, please consider this opportunity to run for your town council. The Altadena Town Council has been in existence since 1975, and in the first election over 1,500 ballots were cast for two seats.

The Council meets on the third Tuesday of every month and serves as an advisory body to various LA County departments. There are two council members per census tract, and each tract has one seat up for election this year. We welcome and hope for your participation.

Sylvia Vega, Chair of the Election Committee, said, "Running for Altadena Town Council and voting in this local election is important to our community. The larger the turnout, the more legitimacy the Council possesses in our dealings with LA County."

All election materials for potential applicants are on the Altadena Town Council website.

Voting will be held on two days, at the same three locations:

- Tuesday, November 3, 2026 – 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.
- Saturday, November 7, 2026 – 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Polling places: Loma Alta Park Library, Prime Pizza, and Bob Lucas Library. Absentee and write-in ballots will not be accepted.

The Election Committee consists of Town Council members and community members from Altadena: Kim Yu, Pat Sutherlen, Jon Carmody, Yolanda Dorsey, and Sylvia Vega.

Any questions or concerns can be addressed to Sylvia Vega, Chair of the Election Committee, at sylvia.vega@altadenatowncouncil.org or (626) 482-8787.
